

WHAT? DAMAGE TO THE CARGO

The safe stowage and securing of cargoes depend on proper planning, execution and supervision. Personnel commissioned to tasks of cargo stowage and securing should be properly qualified and experienced.

WHY? IMPROPERLY PACKED AND SECURED CARGO

The person who packs and secures cargo into/onto the cargo transport unit (CTU) may be the last person to look inside the unit until it is opened at its final destination. Improperly packed and secured cargo, the use of unsuitable CTUs and the overloading of CTUs may endanger persons during handling and transport operations.

WHO TO RESPOND? CONSIGNOR & FREIGHT FORWARDER

The cargo owner aspires to assign to the freight forwarder all efforts on the organization of transportation and maintenance of safety of cargoes. Meanwhile, after the transfer of cargo to the freight forwarder under its full responsibility, the cargo owner also has risks and responsibilities.

WHO TO RESPOND? HAULER & DRIVER

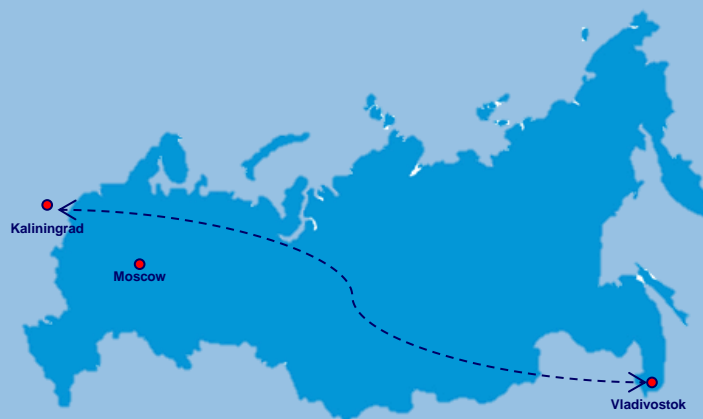

The hauler and driver plays important roles in maintenance of safety of cargoes. The hauler should maintain transportation units in well order and train the driver. The hauler should maintain transportation units in well order and train the driver to let him play the active role during transportation.

WHO TO RESPOND? CARGO INSURANCE

The Insurer would be released out of liability to indemnify loss, damage or expense caused by insufficiency of packing or preparation of the interest insured when this is done with the insured's control, privity or knowledge.

The insurance could be specially extended to cover physical loss of or damage to the goods insured arising out of the performance of inspection duties by Customs Service Agents or other duly constituted governmental agencies who are performing inspection duties of or for the Customs Service.
