SOCIAL EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE IN MOSCOW

Presentation

Moscow, 2018

“To fight against great exclusion, you must have great professionals”

Dr. Xavier Emmanuelli, founder of Samusocial International

Our history

- Samusocial Moskva is a Russian Non-Commercial Organization with French origins and methodology
- Its name comes from the French acronym SAMU (Service d'Aide Medicale d'Urgence) – which means “Emergency Medical Assistance Service”
- Samusocial Paris was created in 1993 and Samusocial International was created in 1998
- Samusocial Moskva was created in 2003 by Dr. Xavier Emmanuelli and Dr. Leonid Rochal. Between 2005 and 2011, Samusocial Moskva focused its efforts on children and young adults in Moscow, and since 2012, has re-oriented its focus on adult persons

Our work and objectives

- Our objectives are to
 - provide medical care and material help (clothes, shoes, medicine etc.) to homeless people in Moscow
 - provide psychological support and assistance to victims of social exclusion
 - share our experience and knowledge about fight against poverty and social exclusion via training sessions
- We focus on socially excluded adults living in Moscow, including women and mothers with limited financial resources
- In 2011, a cooperation agreement was signed between Samusocial Moskva and the Department of Social Welfare of the City of Moscow
- Our teams work and operate both in the streets of Moscow and in the premises of the Center for Social Adaptation (CSA) Elizaveta Glinka

Our team

- Our team is composed of 7 professionals including
 - 2 doctors - Boris Voynov and Maxim Novoselov
 - 2 psychologists - Maria Shabalkina and Irina Bludova
 - 1 coordinator - Maria Sedushkina
 - 1 administrator and accountant - Vera Malusha
- Samusocial Moskva is led by Eva Bertrand since September 2017
- Our work is also supported by volunteers living in Moscow

Our plan for 2018

- In 2018, Samusocial Moskva will focus its activity on three priority areas
 - continuation and expansion of our care programs: medical, social and psychological support and assistance
 - focus on medical support for the most severely ill homeless persons (HIV/AIDS)
 - raising of awareness for the issue of homelessness in Moscow through various conferences, trainings and publications

Our corporate and institutional sponsors

How can you support our activity?

- There are various ways to provide support for Samusocial Moskva – both in-kind and financial
- In-kind donations: adult clothes (coats, socks, gloves, hats etc.), first emergency medicine and medical products (bandages, plasters, disinfectants etc.), and hygiene products in particular for women. These are typically collected within firms, organizations from employees, or from private individuals. Our teams are ready to make a detailed presentation on this topic
- Financial donations: we seek funding for our care programs (monthly costs indicated below)
 - medical consultations and emergency care (2 days per week, 1 doctor) – EUR 700
 - psychological consultations (2 days per week, 2 doctors) – EUR 1,200
 - medical consultations in the street (2 ½ days per week, 1 doctor) – EUR 400
 - medicines, medical equipment for emergency care – EUR 125
 - social worker (2 days per week) – EUR 300

What can we do together?

- Training and conferences for your staff (on homelessness, on social exclusion, on charity in France and in Russia, etc.)
- Social responsibility events (master class, film projection, presentation of our activities)
- Participation in sport events: by forming a team for the next Moscow marathon, for instance
- One-time action: distribution of food or tea and coffee for homeless people
- Or join us as volunteer!
